[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]
Covington, Va., October 29.—One of the most notable events in the society circle of Covington took place at the home of the Misses McCurdy on Tuesday evening last. Miss Garnett Vowels and Mr. J. H. Rittsch were married by the Rev. F. Eustler, of the Methodist church. Miss Vowels was the niece of the Misses McCurdy and has lived with them. Mr. Ritsch is the druggist of Covington. Miss Nannie Vowels, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Alexander Vowels was the groom's cest man. There were many costly presents, and the couple received the congratulations of a host of friends. After the ceremony a sumptuous repast was served, after which the bride's cake was cut. The contents of the cake were two pieces of money, a darning-needle, and a gold ring. The larger piece of money fell to Mr. G. B. Bell, the smaller to Mr. H. L. Garnett, the darning-needle to Mr. Ira Payne, and the ring to Miss Lizzie Chapman. It was thought at the time that chance had been a true prophet. On the 26th Mr. Charles D. Dressler and Miss Minnie Patsy Smith, both of Alleghany county, were married by Rev. Samuel Chapman.

ON SEVEN PINES RAILROAD, ONE AND A QUARTER MILES PROM RICHMOND.

Lots $2 to $4 a foot, payable $25 cash and $5 monthly. Free passes on railroad for one year to settlers.

The recent purchasers of the road have contracted to run an electric-car each way every hour during the day, commencing at 6 A. M. and ending at 11 P. M. This practically puts the property within the city limits. Splendid water, beautiful shade, convenient public school, elevated location, grove reserved for children, are some of the strong points about this location. The streets, 60 and 100 feet wide, have been beautifully graded and have two and three rows of shade trees, all of which have been boxed.

Will build neat cottages for those who pay cash for lots.

This projecty commends itself particularly to those who wish to get their children away from the demoralizing influences of bad companions. Call for map and see the liberality and beauty of the plan.
